PRODUCTIVE, FUN AND SOCIAL ACTIVITIES AT THE CLUB

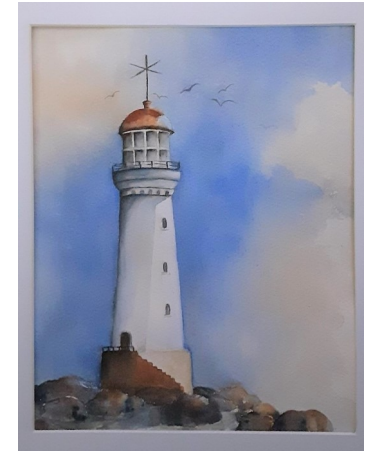

Below are some photos of the quilters and their handiwork. They meet on the first & third Saturday of the month from 10 –4pm. Drop in for a short visit or stay the whole day. You don't have to be a quilter – bring your knitting, crochet, any craft that you are happy to sit and do. Bring your lunch (bring what you want to consume) and enjoy the company.

The painters have supplied some lovely pictures. Contact Maria Fritz or the club if you are interested in purchasing any of the wonderful pieces.

Thursday	3.00 - 6.00pm
Friday	4.00 - 6.00pm
Saturday	CLOSED
Sunday *	2.00 - 4.00pm

* Some members have been disappointed to find the club bar closed on some Sundays when we advertise that we are open between 2-4pm. When functions are on (the 1st & 3rd Sunday of the month for meals, the last Sunday of the month for Kaffeeeklatsch) the bar is open. Due to the lack of volunteers, the bar may not be open on other weeks. We apologise for any inconvenience – but the club is run entirely by volunteers – we can't make someone be there.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Hello everyone and thank you for your support over the last few months.

We've had some very well attended functions in February and March thanks to our wonderful volunteers that continue to make this happen and also our members that continue to attend. We have more planned– check your newsletter for future dates – and please approach me if you have any ideas for types of functions you would like to see held.

Both our Friendship Quilters and Merton Painters have supplied some great pictures for our newsletter. It's great to see what others are doing in the club.
