PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Besides our normal schnitzel lunches and Thursday evenings between 3 & 6 pm at the bar, in the past couple of months we've gathered at our club to celebrate on Easter Sunday and we enjoyed Rouladen together in mid-May. The Rouladen was such a hit that we'll be doing it again in August so keep an eye out for the next newsletter. We continue to have new groups utilising the club and this introduces new members to the club. Several of our current members are also holding functions at the club. We've become very busy!

A special free event was held to celebrate our 60th Anniversary (see photos in this newsletter). The Honorary Consul of Germany, David Shelley, and the Honorary Consul of Austria, Dr Eva Meidel joined us for the afternoon. Thanks to Karina for compiling the photo montage.

You may have noticed our hedges have been getting another good haircut. Thankyou Frank, Michael and Gaby. We all appreciate the effort and time you've put in to keeping our club grounds looking great!

All the best,
Veronica Dalton

MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL

Memberships become due on 1 July. To renew your club membership for the 2022/2023 year, you can pay the $25 fee any time at the club when attending functions, with credit card over the phone on Thursdays between 3 and 6, or by deposit in the club's bank account BSB 017209 A/c 448910838. Membership brings with it some benefits including copies of every newsletter to keep you up-to-date with everything happening in your club, the ability to vote at the AGM, access to special events and deals at club functions (for example, the Anniversary BBQ in March). But mainly it shows support for your club and helps keep it thriving. Thank you for joining us.
